DIY Homework Center and Bookmarks

SUPPLIES

- empty tin cans
- spray paint
- paint
- paper
- paintbrushes
- yarn
- scissors
- tape

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Wash empty tin cans (make sure they were opened with a safety can opener, so there are no rough edges) and dry them.
2. Outside, on top of a covered surface such as newspaper, spray paint the tin cans inside and out (adults only). Allow to dry.
3. Paint designs on paper. Get creative and paint any fun pattern that comes to mind. Make sure you paint enough paper to cover the outsides of the tin cans and make bookmarks. Once you have finished, allow paintings to dry.
4. Cut your artwork into strips to make bookmarks and to cover your cans.
5. Place strips of your artwork around the painted tin cans and tape them in place.
6. Next, make some pom poms for your bookmarks. Wrap yarn around all four fingers of one hand about 20 times. Snip with scissors and then slip the loops off your fingers. Tip: You can use a single color of yarn or combine colors for a more festive look.
7. Tie a piece of yarn around the center of the looped yarn. Snip the looped edges of one side and then the other to form a pom pom. Trim your pom pom until it looks like a tight little ball, but leave the long piece of yarn you tied in the center. You'll need this long piece to tie on your bookmark.
8. Punch holes at the tops of the strips of your artwork that you cut for bookmarks. Thread the ends of the yarn on each pom pom through the holes in a bookmark and tie on the back.
9. Get ready for school in style!
